Meet Arnaud & Andrew

Wine Ambassadors: Your Personal Wine Consultants

Arnaud Delacroix, founder of Ælysium, and Andrew Wooldridge, American Wine Ambassador in Paris, are more than wine experts: they are part curators, part confidants. Between them, they possess an uncommon ability not merely to recommend wines, but to match them intuitively to each client's personality and preferences.

Together, they share decades of combined experience forging links between France's greatest vineyards and the world's most discerning travelers. Their approaches differ, and that is the point: what one hears in a tasting, the other hears in a conversation.

Whether building a bespoke wine cellar to be shipped door-to-door to your home, sharing a moment in Paris over a rare vintage, or continuing the journey through the Ælysium Wine Club, Arnaud and Andrew ensure each client's identity, tastes and personal history come first.

3 Daily Rendezvous 3 Royal Salons 1 Unique Experience

Embodying the spirit of CÉLYSIUM, each wine experience unfolds in the private VIP “Salon Weller,” a refined space that combines comfort, elegance, and discretion, creating the perfect atmosphere for an intimate journey through France’s greatest vineyards without leaving Paris.

For events of 7 to 15 guests, other private salons are available upon request.

Ælysium Wine Experiences: The “Haute Couture” of Wine Tasting

Step into the world of Ælysium Wine Experiences, where each tasting is conceived as haute couture evolving with the seasons. Every bottle is handpicked by Arnaud and Andrew to reflect the essence of France’s greatest terroirs, from the legendary Grands Crus of Burgundy and Champagne to the prestigious Classified Growths of Bordeaux. Rare vintages and exclusive labels are the norm, the most extravagant requests can be granted, and extraordinary dreams are transformed into reality.

To elevate and highlight the character of each wine, every glass is accompanied by a bespoke culinary pairing by the two-Michelin-starred restaurant, Le Clarence – a delicate, bite-sized hors d’œuvre designed to accompany each bottle. Each selection embodies the pinnacle of French winemaking and gastronomy, marrying the finest wines with extraordinary cuisine. This exclusive experience unfolds in two gourmet tasting formats:

- The Voyageur Tastings: 4 or 6 classic wines, paired with cheese and charcuterie
- The Epicure Tastings: 5, 7, or 9 exquisite wines, paired with gourmet hors d’œuvres crafted by the chefs of Le Clarence

Vegetarian options available upon request*
